This night you kneel before your friends
And wash our feet.
Bound together in your love,
trembling, we drink your cup

All Who Are Thirsty by Brenton Brown

All who are thirsty
All who are weak
Come to the fountain
Dip your heart in the stream of life
Let the pain and the sorrow
Be washed away

In the waves of his mercy
As deep cries out in deep

(we sing)
Come, Lord Jesus, come
Come, Lord Jesus, come
Come, Lord Jesus, come

As deep cries out to deep
As deep cries out to deep
As deep cries out to deep, we sing

Amémenos de Corazón

Amémonos de corazón,
no de labios solamente.
Para cuando Cristo venga,
Para cuando Cristo venga,
nos encuentre bien unidos.

¿Cómo puedes tú orar
enojado con tu hermano?
Dios no escucha la oración
Dios no escucha la oración
si no estás reconciliado//

¿Cuántas veces debo yo perdonar al que me
ofende?//
//Setenta veces siete,
setenta veces siete,
perdonar al que me ofende.

*Let's love each other from the heart,
not lips only.
For when Christ comes,
For when Christ comes,
find us well united.*

*How can you pray when you are angry with your brother?
God does not hear prayer
God does not listen to a prayer
if you are not reconciled*

*How many times should I forgive the one who offends me?
Seventy times seven,
seventy times seven,
forgive the one who offends me.*

Music Empty Me by Jeremy Camp

Holy fire burn away
My desire for anything
That is not of You and is of me
I want more of You
And less of me, yeah//

Empty me, empty me,
Fill, won't You fill me
With You, with You, yeah

Well, empty me now
Well, won't you empty me
Well, won't you empty me now

Well, won't You empty me
Well, won't you empty me now

Well, I want more
I want more
I want more of You, Jesus
I want more
I want more, oh

The Word of God

The Gospel

John 13: 1- 15

Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand." Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no share with me." Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!" Jesus said to him, "One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you." For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, "Not all of you are clean." After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord—and you are right, for that is what I am. So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.

Live in char - i - ty and stead - fast love.
U - bi ca - ri - tas et a - mor,

Live in char - i - ty; God will dwell with you.
u - bi ca - ri - tas De - us i - bi est.

This refrain comes from a Latin hymn associated with the washing of feet on Maundy Thursday. Whether in English or Latin, it is most effective when sung unaccompanied and in parts. In many ways it is a miniature equivalent of "Will You Let Me Be Your Servant" (see no. 727).

Prepare the Table

Beautiful Things by Michael Gunger

All this pain
I wonder if I'll ever find my way
I wonder if my life could really change, at all
All this earth
Could all that is lost ever be found?
Could a garden come out from this ground, at all?

Chorus

You make beautiful things
You make beautiful things out of the dust
You make beautiful things
You make beautiful things out of us

All around,
Hope is springing up from this old ground
Out of chaos, life is being found, in you (Chorus)

You make me new,
You are making me new
You make me new,
You are making me new
