Choral Evensong for Trinity Sunday – May 26th

Celebrate our parish feast day with a special service of Choral Evensong, on Trinity Sunday, May 26th, at 5:30 p.m.

Organist/Choirmaster Alex Jones and the Trinity Choir will present this sung liturgy. The music for this service includes Evening Service (Magnificat and Nunc Dimittis) in B Flat by Charles Villiers Stanford; Bernard Rose's Preces and Responses, and, as the anthem, Benjamin Britten's beloved "Jubilate Deo," a setting of the 100th Psalm, which was commissioned in 1961 by the late Duke of Edinburgh for the Choir of St. George's Chapel, Windsor.

Vidas Robadas gun violence memorial

Trinity will host an installation of T-shirts with the names of victims of gun violence as part of the Vidas Robadas (stolen lives) project.

There will be an opportunity to write victims' names on the T-shirts, during coffee hour today. Installation will be June 2nd.

Gun Violence Awareness Weekend is June 7th to 9th.

On June 9th, we encourage parishioners to wear orange in observance of it.

Honoring Henry and Treadwell Atkins

The Rev. Canon Dr. Henry Atkins and his wife, Treadwell, (also known as the Rector's parents) will be returning to Las Cruces, New Mexico, at the end of May. We will honor them at Coffee Hour today, May 26th, with a book signing of Experiencing God: Faith Narratives of Episcopalians. Canon Atkins was a contributor to this book. Copies will be on sale for a donation of $25 or more, proceeds from which will go to our sandwich making ministry.

Sunday School and Adult Forum

Today, Trinity Sunday, marks the end of our program year. Today is the last day for children's and youth Sunday School, as well as Adult Forum. They will resume in September.

Child care for small children will continue to be available through the summer.

At today's 10:30 service, we will honor our Sunday School teachers.

Honoring Sam Jones

Our longtime security guard Sam Jones recently retired after over 30 years of service to Trinity. Donations to a purse in honor of his three decades as part of the Trinity community will be accepted through May and will be presented to him in June. Please note that these contributions are non tax-deductible. Please contact Larry Laubach at finance@trinitymidtown.org for more details.
